XV.—METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.

No. 42.—Notes on the Rainfall of Western Australia for July, August, and September, 1922.

July.—The opening days of July were marked by a complete change from the dry, cold conditions which prevailed during the latter half of June. Rains of regular winter type set in on the 2nd, and lasted several days, good falls being noted throughout the agricultural districts, while lighter showers extended to the Gascoyne and Goldfields. Another equally extensive rainstorm commenced on the 9th, and lasted until the 14th, the results again being very satisfactory over the Wheat belt. This disturbance was particularly notable on account of phenomenal downpours in the extreme South-West, where Karridale registered 6.20 inches for the 24 hours ended 8 a.m. on the 15th. The remainder of the month saw an alteration in the character of the rains, which, although still frequent, were no longer heavy except on the South-West coast.

Taken as a whole, the month's rainfall was above normal over the Central and Southern portions of the agricultural country, and along the S.W. and South coasts. From Moora Northward, deficiencies were the rule, while the large majority of the Murchison and Coolgardie Goldfields stations, and the whole of the Tropics and West Gascoyne, were also below the average.

August.—Over the greater part of the State the month of August was deficient in rainfall. Although rain disturbances were frequent, they lacked intensity, and usually travelled quickly away towards the Eastern States. As a result, persistent showery weather was experienced over South-West coastal areas, extending at intervals to the agricultural country and Southern Goldfields. Northward from Moora, however, the gaugings almost invariably dwindled away to a few points, and the water shortage over the Northern Midland country continued until the 24th, when a rainstorm of a different type developed, and those districts received falls ranging from half an inch to an inch. Good gaugings were also effected over the Murchison and Coolgardie Goldfields, where, as a result, the majority of stations exceeded the monthly average. Elsewhere, with minor exceptions, deficiencies were fairly pronounced, and North of the Tropic the month was practically rainless.

September.—Excluding a few stations on the South-Eastern Goldfields and isolated centres in the Southern agricultural districts and Kimberley, the rainfall during September was everywhere below the average. In the agricultural areas the discrepancies ranged from 56 to 113 points over the Midland country, from 15 to 81 points in the Eastern districts, and from a few points above 103 below in the Southern localities.

In the agricultural areas there were only two extensive rainfalls, on the 17th and 18th, and the 24th and 25th. The latter disturbance also extended to the South-Eastern Goldfields, while light showers also penetrated to the East and West Gascoyne. Apart from these two disturbances the gaugings were light and scattered through agricultural centres. Over Coastal areas, however, some additional good falls were registered on the 4th, 13th and 23rd.
